Becoming Fearless

Each year the St Isaac Jogues Youth Conference hosts a conference event for the teens of the Albany Diocese and beyond to inspire teens along with their youth groups to journey together in a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ and to impart a desire to grow in holiness. Today teens live in an atmosphere of conflicting messages as to who they are and they need to know just how each of them are an irreplaceable gift from God. A sure way for them to know that is to have a consistent faithful adult to walk with them as they mature in their faith. This is why relational ministry is such an important aspect of the mission of the conference To help teens and the adult leaders have a shared experience to spring forth a relationship that will continue to guide them year long fearlessly through the daily pressures they face. The conference is offered to all High School teens on July 13-15, 2018, for more information contact (name) at (email/phone).

The Encounter

Today teens receive so many different view points regarding matters of faith, relationships and morality that the reality of true freedom and happiness is being lost to them. One of the most relevant ways to help them know truth and joy is through a personal encounter with God through Adoration, Mass, and the Sacraments of the Eucharist and Reconciliation. The St Isaac Jogues Youth Conference provides an atmosphere away from the daily distractions to experience that encounter in a dynamic way. Offered to all High School teens and youth groups July 13-15, 2018. For more information contact (name) at (email/phone)
